

Behavioural Focus Framework Information Sheet

CONSULTRAINING* TO CO-CREATE MEANINGFUL CHANGE

Consultraining: An active learning process that combines the tangible outcomes of a consulting activity with the capability to do it yourself moving forward.*

What's Included

1. One 60-minute Behavioural Focus Session

- Frame your thinking about why change needs to happen and where to start
- A better way of communicating and getting through to leadership

2. A Six-Week Framework for Co-Creating Change

- A detailed plan to guide you through implementing your change project
- Step-by-step activity explanations, including guided conversations to conduct

3. Weekly 30-minute Accountability Calls

- Keep focus through discussions about progress with the Framework
- Have a sounding board to ensure ideas are aligned with goals

4. One 60-minute Follow-up Session After Six Months

- Sustain the learning through reflection

Benefits of the Behavioural Focus Framework

- Focused change on a key organizational issue
- Strengthen your seat at the table with the leadership team
- Demonstrate value of people practices
- The capability of implementing more effective change programs on your own

"I highly recommend this program to any business looking to improve their employees overall experience. We have had great success and feedback since the start of the pilot and we will continue to use the knowledge and program in the future. "

- Lindsay Martin, Director of HR and People Services at Ecofitt

Cost: $2,500CAD / $2,000USD

Click here to book a call and learn more